ALBRECHT
DR 56+ DAB+
Car Stereo Adapter

The Albrecht DR 56+ is a DAB+ digital radio adapter with music streaming and a hands-free function. It attaches to the windshield with a suction cup mount, and the active antenna ensures optimal reception.

The 2.4-inch TFT color display offers intuitive menu navigation in 11 languages. Music and calls can be controlled via BT, and thanks to Aux-In/Aux-Out or FM transmission, the connection to the car stereo is flexible. Other highlights include 60 favorite presets, Service Following for automatic frequency search, and a microSD player. A dual-USB cigarette lighter adapter also allows you to charge external devices.
