

ALBRECHT DR863 Digital Radio

This modern DAB+ and FM radio features a switchable comfort mode that rules out accidental operation by reducing the controls to switching on and off, volume control and five station buttons. For maximum safety and accessibility, the radio also offers reliable reception of ASA warning alerts – even in standby – as well as supportive voice output and menu navigation in nine languages.

The large 4.3-inch TFT colour display ensures excellent readability. The clearly arranged buttons on the radio make everyday handling particularly intuitive. The features are rounded off by a remote control for convenient operation from the sofa and the practical option of streaming music, including track information, directly from your smartphone.
